WCIP FOUNDER'S WELCOME

Welcome to the 1st Philippine National Symposium on Wound Care! It is an honor to have you here in the annual event of the Wound Care Institute of the Philippines. We are very pleased that finally we are hosting this event for all of you. Wound Care is a very exciting and dynamic field and the wound care market has progressed significantly over the past years. More specialized products are being introduced in the market and technology is at its best. The Wound Care Institute of the Philippines aims to feed all these updates to you as we convene in this 2-day event. It is our vision to provide quality educational topics in wound management so that all clinicians can improve the quality of care they provide.

To all our highly-esteemed speakers and guests, thank you so much for being part of this symposium. We value your patronage and we wish you all the success in your clinical practice. Again, to all attendees, exhibitors, advertisers and sponsors, thank you and God bless!

- Thomas Foz Foronda, PT, DPT,
